

Islam Assembled

The Advent of the Muslim Congresses

---

MARTIN KRAMER

ISLAM ASSEMBLED

The Advent of the Muslim Congresses

MARTIN KRAMER

New York Columbia University Press 1986

Index

- °Abbas Hilmi, 59; patronizes Kawakibi, 33, 202<sub>n</sub>23; and Gasprinskii, 40–41; founds Alliance Musulmane Internationale, 138–39, 144
- °Abd al-Baha°, 24
- °Abd al-Hadi, °Awni, 135
- °Abd al-Karim: and Cairo congress, 98–99; and Meccan congress (1926), 114–15
- °Abdallah ibn Husayn, 63, 129
- °Abduh, Muhammad: and Ottoman caliphate, 26; and Afghani, 27, 201<sub>n</sub>3; and al-Manar proposal (1898), 27–30; and Rida, 41–42; and Maraghi, 64–65; and Bigi, 96; and Blunt, 200<sub>n</sub>38, 201<sub>n</sub>2
- Abdülaziz, 5
- Abdülhamid II: 5, 12, 23, 27, 34, 38, 40; and pan-Islamic policy, 6–9; and Blunt, 18; and Afghani's proposal, 20–22; opposes congress idea, 29–30; and Gasprinskii, 43
- Abdülmeccid: as caliph, 78; deposed, 79; and Jerusalem congress, 127–28; Turkish apprehension over, 129–30
- Afghani, Jamal al-Din al-: 24, 96; pan-Islamic activities, 7–8; and Arabian caliphate, 19; and congress idea, 20–22; and °Abduh, 27; legend concerning, 39; legacy of, 42, 143, 144, 155
- Afghanistan, Afghan Muslims: 1877 Ottoman mission to, 8; 1916 Ottoman mission to, 55–56; anti-British activity in, 59–61; and Enver Paşa, 72; and Turkish caliphate policy, 78–79; as site for caliphate, 90; delegation to Meccan congress (1926), 108, 111, 114, 116
- Africa (Sub-Saharan), African Muslims: Ottoman influence in, 7; jihad in, 7; Meccan congress (1926) attempt to influence, 115
- Agha Khan, 91, 103
- Ahmad Shah, 59
- Ahmad Shahid [Brewli], 59
- Ahmed Hulûsi Efendi, 8
- Ahmed Muhtar Paşa, 42–43
- Ahmed Tevfik, 82
- °Alawis, 141
- Algeria, Algerian Muslims: resettle in Ottoman Empire, 5; revolt of, 14; and Cairo congress, 97–98; and European Muslim Congress, 149–51
- °Ali Aqa Shirazi [Labib al-Mulk], 47–49
- °Ali ibn Husayn, 80, 85, 129
- °Ali, Muhammad, 60, 70, 93, 207<sub>n</sub>7; at Meccan congress (1926), 108–9, 114–16; attacks Ibn Sa°ud, 120–21; suggests Supreme Islamic Council, 124
- °Ali, Shawkat, 60, 141; opposes Cairo congress, 93–94; attends Meccan congress (1926), 108–9, 112–14; initiates Jerusalem congress, 124–25; complicates congress plans, 127–29; clashes with Husayni, 133–34, 136–37
- °Ali, Zaki, 145
- Allenby, Lord, 81
- Alliance Musulmane Internationale, 138–39
- °Alluba, Muhammad °Ali: treasurer of Jerusalem congress, 140; and Arab congress on Palestine, 154–55
- Amrullah, Abd al-Karim [Hadji Rasuf], 96
- Ansari, Mukhtar Ahmad, 94–95
- Antonius, George: on Meccan congress (1926), 117; view of Jerusalem congress, 135, 140
- Arab caliphate, see Caliphate
- Arabia, Arabian Muslims: see Mecca; Husayn ibn °Ali; Ibn Sa°ud, °Abd al-°Aziz
- Aras, Tevfik Rüstü, 130–31
- Arslan, Shakib, 51, 71, 87, 107, 124, 138, 167, 207<sub>n</sub>13, 217<sub>n</sub>7, 218<sub>n</sub>10; and Cairo congress, 98; secretary general of Meccan congress (1926), 118; makes pilgrimage, 121; criticizes Turks, 131; organizes European Muslim Congress,

- Arslan, Shakib (Continued)
 142–52; urges pan-Islamic policy on Axis, 158–59, 162
- Asadabadi, Jamal al-Din, see Afghani, Jamal al-Din al-
- Asadabadi, Lutf Allah, 20, 22
- Atatürk, Mustafa Kemal, 53, 138; and Enver Paşa, Soviets, 69–72; and Society of Unitarians, 73–74; and caliphate, congress idea, 76–79; and Meccan congress (1926), 111; opposes Jerusalem congress, 131
- Atjeh, see Indonesia
- ʿAwad, Hafiz, 41, 43
- Azad, Abul Kalam, 60
- ʿAzaʿim, Muhammad Madi Abu al-, and Cairo congress, 89–91, 98; attends Meccan congress (1926), 110–11
- Azhar, al-: and Gasprinskii plan, 41; and congress rumors (1916), 57; sponsors caliphate congress, 86–101; and Shiʿis, 102–4; importance of, 104–5; and Jerusalem congress, 128
- ʿAzm, Haqqi al-, 43
- ʿAzm, Rafiq al-, 43
- Azoury, Negib, 4
- ʿAzzam, ʿAbd al-Rahman: and Shiʿis, 102–3; attends Jerusalem congress, 131, 135–36, 220n71
- Badger, G. P., 17–18
- Bahawalpur, Nawab of, 59
- Bakri, Muhammad Tawfik al-: radicalism of, 40; and Gasprinskii, 41–42, 45
- Barakat, Fath Allah, 90
- Barbiellini Amidei, Bernardo, 149, 151
- Battal, Abdullah, 44
- Bekir Sami, 74
- Berlin, see Germany
- Bigi, Musa Carullah: misses Cairo congress, 96; attends Jerusalem congress, 132
- Birdwood, G. C. M., 12–13
- Bishri, Salim al-, 41
- Blunt, Wilfrid Scawen: and Arabian caliphate, 10–11, 18; influences on, 11–15, 200n18; proposes caliphate congress, 15–16; and Islam, 17, 200n28; and Afghani, 19–20; and ʿAbduh, 26, 200n38, 201n2
- Bornu, 4
- Bose, Subhas Chandra, 160–61
- Bosnia, Bosnian Muslims: attend Jerusalem congress, 132; attend European Muslim Congress, 146, 148; wartime collaboration of, 162
- Browne, E. G., 2–3, 51
- Caliphate: universality of Ottoman, 3–9; criticism of Ottoman, 12–13, 26; and Sharif of Mecca, 13–19, 62–64; critics reconsider, 19–20; and Manar school, 27–31; Kawakibi proposes elected, 33; Mehmed Murad and, 49–50; Ottoman ulama and, 61–62; Maraghi proposes elected, 64–66; postwar crisis of, 67–68; Atatürk and, 73–74; abolition of, 76–79; Husayn claims, 80, 83–85; and Egyptian aspirations, congress, 86–105; and Jerusalem congress, 127–30
- Çantay, Hasan Basri, 78
- Caucasus, Caucasian Muslims: flee to Ottoman Empire, 5; and congress proposal, 49–50; represented at Jerusalem congress, 132; Arslan demands independence for, 158
- Cebesoy, Ali Fuad, 69, 71
- Cemal Paşa, 69, 207n6
- Cevdet, Abdullah, 43
- Chicherin, G. V., 70
- China, Chinese Muslims: attend Tokyo congress, 156–57
- Ciano, Galeazzo, 153
- Clayton, Gilbert, 117
- Committee of Union and Progress, see Young Turks
- Congress of the Arabian Peninsula, 82–83
- Congress of the Islamic World (Mecca, 1926): history, 106–22; rumored reconvening, 129, 217n77; text of charter, 186–91
- Cox, Percy, 64
- Crimea, Crimean Muslims: and Safavids, 1; flee to Ottoman Empire, 5; and Gasprinskii plan, 36–39
- Cromer, Lord, 40
- Cyrenaica, see Libya
- Darwaza, Muhammad ʿIzzat, 124
- Deoband, 59
- Dhofar, 5

- Dijwi, Yusuf al-, 89–90
 Durics, Huszein Hilmi, 148
 Duwaji, Taysir, 18–21
- Egypt, Egyptian Muslims: congress proposed for (1896), 25; early center for congress idea, 26–31; Gasprinskii proposes congress in, 36–47; pro-Ottoman activities of, 56–59; and wartime caliphate plans, 62–66; hosts caliphate congress, 86–102; and leadership of Islam, 102–5; delegation at Meccan congress (1926), 110–11, 115–16; delegation at Jerusalem congress, 128–29, 131, 133, 135, 220<sup>n</sup>71; proposal to move Jerusalem congress to, 140; British consider organizing congress in, 163–64; see also ʿAbbas Hilmi; Fuʿad I
- Enver Paşa: wartime activities, 55, 57–59; founds League of Islamic Revolutionary Societies, 69–71; parts with Soviets, killed, 72
- Ersoy, Mehmed Âkif, 77
- European Muslim Congress (Geneva, 1935), 142–53, 159
- Fahri Paşa, 71
- Farid, Muhammad, 51, 56–58
- Faruq I, 102, 104
- Fawzi, Sulayman, 220<sup>n</sup>71
- Faysal ibn Husayn: proposes Meccan congress, 81, 85; declines invitation to Meccan congress (1926), 111; rumored to seek caliphate, 129
- Fergan, Eşref Edib, 77–78
- Ferid Paşa, 42
- France: Muslim reaction to conquests of, 5; congress proposed for, 29; plan to spy on Gasprinskii's congress, 45; and Ottoman jihad, 56; and plan for Meccan congress, 81; attitude to Cairo congress, 96–99; and Abdülmecid's departure for Palestine, 129–30; and delegates to European Muslim Congress, 149; and Algerian workers, 151
- Fraternité Musulmane, La (Paris), 143
- Fuʿad I: and Hijaz ambitions, 85; and Cairo congress, 86–87, 91, 93–100; and Jerusalem congress, 128
- Gaillard, Henri, 97, 99–100
- Gasprinskii, İsmail: as publicist, 36–37; authors congress plan, 37–39; activities in Cairo, 39–40, 43–44; seeks Ottoman support, 42–43, 203<sup>n</sup>11; collapse of initiative, 45; importance of, 46–47, 51; compared to Mehmed Murad, 49; charter of proposed congress, 45–46, 171–74
- General Islamic Congress (Jerusalem, 1931): history, 123–41; linked to European Muslim Congress, 143, 145–46; and Axis powers, 141, 162; text of charter, 192–94
- General Islamic Congress for the Caliphate in Egypt (Cairo, 1926): history, 86–102; text of charter, 183–85
- Geneva: and Society for the Progress of Islam, 56–57; and Alliance Musulmane Internationale, 138–39; site of European Muslim Congress, 142–52; and Gasprinskii, 203<sup>n</sup>11
- Germany: and Ottoman pan-Islam, 57–58; and League of Islamic Revolutionary Societies, 69–70; and Jerusalem congress, 141; attitude to Arab pan-Islam, 157–63
- Ghayati, ʿAli al-, 144–45, 152
- Gibb, H. A. R., 124, 135, 220<sup>n</sup>70
- Great Britain: Muslim response to conquests of, 5, 9; and Ottoman caliphate, 12–18; and Gasprinskii initiative, 45; and Ottoman jihad, 56; and Silk Letter conspiracy, 60–61; envisions changes in caliphate, 62–67; checks pan-Islamic activity in Palestine, 81–82; and Cairo congress, 86, 99; decides to permit Jerusalem congress, 125–26; policy to Jerusalem congress, 130, 135–36; Muslims attack Palestine policy of, 134–35, 150–51; and European Muslim Congress, 146, 149; rejects idea of pro-Allied Muslim congress, 163–64; and London mosque, 164
- Greater Japan Muslim League, 155–57
- Grobba, Fritz, 158
- Habiballah, 59
- Hacı Sami, 207<sup>n</sup>6
- Hajj, Misali al-, 149, 151

- Halil Paşa, 207<sup>n6</sup>
 Hamza, Fuʿad, 121
 Hanotaux, Gabriel, 29
 Haqqi, Ihsan Şami, 144, 146
 Haydari-zâde Ibrahim, 81–82
 Headley, Lord, 146, 149
 Hijaz, see Mecca; Husayn ibn ʿAli
 Hijaz railroad, 9, 125
 Hilbawi, Ibrahim al-, 42
 Hitler, Adolf, 157–58, 162–63
 Hungary, 148
 Husayn ibn ʿAli: 103; revolt against Ottomans, 56–57; and British caliphate plans, 62–64, 67; proclaimed caliph and organizes Pilgrimage Congress, 80–85;
   Egyptian opposition to caliphate of, 88;
   buried in Jerusalem, 129
 Husayni, Amin al-: at Meccan congress
   (1926), 110, 115; organizes Jerusalem congress, 123–41; and European Muslim Congress, 143; correspondence with Arslan, 144, 147–48, 158–59;
   wartime activities in Germany, 158–62;
   and role in congresses, 167
 Hüseyin Ragib, 77
 Husni, Cemal, 145
 Hyderabad, Nizam of, 59, 85

 Ibn Saʿud, ʿAbd al-ʿAziz: 80, 124–25, 140, 163; attitude to caliphate, 64;
   conquers Hijaz, 85; and Cairo congress,
   93; convenes Meccan congress (1926),
   106–17; declines to reconvene congress,
   118–22; and Jerusalem congress, 129,
   140–41
 İbrahim[ov], Abdürreşid: activities in Istanbul, 8; collaboration with Japan,
   155–57
 İdilli, Ayaz İshaki, 132
 Ignatiev, Nikolai, 38
 India, Indian Muslims: attachment to Ottoman caliphate, 4–5, 7–9, 19;
   propose congress for Istanbul, 29; and
   First World War, 59–61; and Cairo congress, 93–95; delegation to Meccan congress (1926), 108–9, 112–16, 120– 21; and Jerusalem congress, 140; and Palestine problem, 154–55; oppose
   Amin al-Husayni, 159–61; see also ʿAli, Shawkat

 Indonesia, Indonesian Muslims:
   attachment to Ottoman caliphate, 4–5;
   and Cairo congress, 95–96; delegation to Meccan congress (1926), 109–110,
   118–19; and Tokyo congress, 156–57
 Iqbal, Muhammad: at Jerusalem congress,
   132, 220<sup>n60</sup>; on Muslim priorities, 154
 Iran, Iranian Muslims: war with Ottomans, 1–3; at Abdülhamid’s court, 7–8, 20–24; propose congresses, 47–49;
   and Gasprinskii, 204<sup>n33</sup>; and Cairo congress, 91–93; attacks Meccan congress, 111–12; and Jerusalem congress, 138; see also Shiʿis
 Iraq, Iraqi Muslims: represented at Cairo congress, 98; and plan for Cairo Islamic Council, 102–4; and Meccan congress
   (1926), 111; at Jerusalem congress, 132–
   33; see also Shiʿis; Faysal ibn Husayn
 Isfahani, Abu al-Hasan, 102
 Islamische Gemeinde (Berlin), 159–61
 Islamische Zentralinstitut (Berlin), 59–61
 Istanbul: as pan-Islamic center, 5–9; congress proposed for, 18, 21; Arab opposition to congress at, 29;
   Gasprinskii’s opposition to congress at,
   38–39, 44–45; pan-Islamic institutions proposed for, 51–53; effect of occupation by Allies, 67–68; proposed Vaticanization of, 76–77; Atatürk plans caliphate congress at, 78–79
 Italy, 55; and Jerusalem congress, 125, 135; relationship with Arslan, 147–48;
   and European Muslim Congress, 149– 51; claims to lead Muslims, 153; Hitler criticizes anti-Islamic policies of, 163;
   see also Libya

 Jabiri, Ihsan al-, 144–45, 150–52, 218<sup>n10</sup>
 Jansky, Herbert, 224<sup>n46</sup>
 Japan, adopts pan-Islamic policy, 155–57;
   and Husayni, 158, 162
 Java, see Indonesia
 Jazaʿiri, ʿAbd al-Karim al-, 102
 Jazaʿiri, Saʿid al-, 132
 Jihad: against British in India, 5; proposed congress to declare, 21; Ottoman declaration of, 55; collective fatwa
   declaring, 7–58
 Jinnah, Muhammad ʿAli, 154

- Jisr, Husayn al-, 7
Jordan, S. R., 107
- Kairanawi, Rahmat Allah, 5
Kamil, Husayn, 66
Kamil, Mustafa, 40, 51
Karabekir, Kazım, 69
Kashif al-Ghita<sup>2</sup>, ʿAli Al, 132
Kashif al-Ghita<sup>2</sup>, Muhammad al-Husayn Al, 102, 132–33, 140
Kasmat, Ahmad, 156
Katkov, Mikhail, 37
Kattani, Muhammad al-, 132
Kawakibi, ʿAbd al-Rahman al-, 41, 45, 167; and Umm al-qura, 30–31; influence of ʿAbduh and Rida upon, 31; writes description of fictional congress, 31–35; influence of, 65, 80, 83–84, 106
Kaylani, Rashid ʿAli al-, 160–61
Kedourie, Elie, 87, 220n70
Kemal, Mustafa, see Atatürk
Kemal, Namık, 1
Khan, Hakim Ajmal, 94
Khilafat Committee, see India; ʿAli, Shawkat; ʿAli, Muhammad
Kirmani, Afzal al-Mulk, 21
Kirmani, Ahmad-i Ruhi, 21, 24
Kirmani, Mirza Aqa Khan, 11, 21, 24
Kitchener, Lord, 62–63
- Lampson, Miles, 163
League of Islamic Revolutionary Societies (Berlin and Moscow): history, 69–72; text of charter, 175–77
League of Nations, 83, 123, 139, 145–47, 218n10
Libya, Libyan Muslims: at Abdülhamid’s court, 7; Muslim resistance in, 55–56, 125, 135, 147–48, 151, 153, 163
Linthgow, Lord, 163–64
Lorraine, Percy, 92
- McMahon, Henry, 66–67
Madani, Muhammad Zafir al-, 7
Madjlis Islam A’laa Indonesia (MIAI), 156
Mahmud al-Hasan [Shaykh al-Hind], 59–61
Malkum Khan, 11–12
Manar, al-, see Rida, Muhammad Rashid
Manchukuo, 155–57
Maraghi, Mustafa al-: proposes elected caliphate, 64–66; and Cairo congress, 100; plan for Supreme Islamic Council, 102–4; suggested as organizer of wartime congress, 163–64
Margoliouth, D. S., 34, 51
Ma’ruf, Farid, 156
Mashriqi, ʿInayat Allah Khan, 87, 95
Mecca: alleged secret meetings at, 14–15; congresses proposed for, 15–16, 19–20, 28–29, 45, 48, 57; fictional account of congress at, 31–35; site of Pilgrimage Congress, 80–85; site of Meccan congress (1926), 106–19; Ibn Saʿud opposes further congresses at, 119–22; Husayni wishes to convene congress at, 141
Mehmed II Giray, 1
Mehmed V Reşad, 55, 59
Mehmed VI Vahideddin, 77–78
Mehmed Murad, 49–50
Minyawı, Muhammad Faraj al-, 87–88, 100–1
Mirghani, Sayyid ʿAli al-, 63–64
Mitsuru, Toyama, 155
Morocco, Moroccan Muslims: and Ottoman pan-Islam, 7, 56; and Cairo congress, 98–99; and Meccan congress (1926), 114–15; delegation to Jerusalem congress, 132
Muftic, Salim, 148
Muhammad ʿAli Shah, 2
Muhammadijah: and Cairo congress, 95–96; and Tokyo congress, 156
Mukhtar, ʿUmar al-, 125
Münir Bey, 129
Musa Kazım, 58
Muslim congress: development of idea, ix–x; early proposals to convene, 10, 14–16, 18, 20–25; radical implications of, 9–10, 17–18, 25; championed by Manar school, 27–29; possible format described in Umm al-qura, 30–35; first attempt to convene, 37–47; popularization of idea of, 47–54; wartime attempts to convene, 57–58, 61–62, 64–66; organized by Enver Paşa, 69–72; sponsored by Atatürk, 73–79; convened during Meccan pilgrimage (1924), 84–85; in Cairo for

- Muslim congress (Continued)
 caliphate (1926), 86–101; proposed to resolve sectarian differences, 103; in Mecca (1926), 106–22; in Jerusalem (1931), 123–41; in Geneva (1935), 142–52; in Tokyo (1939), 156–57; proposed for Germany, 159; British decline to organize, 163–64; idea discredited by Axis ties, 165; failings of, 166–68; achievements of, 168–69
- Muslim university, 52–53, 123, 133–34, 140; see also Azhar, al-
- Mussolini, Benito, 147–48, 151, 153
- Mustafa Sabri, 131
- Muzaffar, ʿAbd al-Qadir al-, 83
Muzaffari, see ʿAli Aqa Shirazi
- Muzakkir, Abdul Kahar, 156–57
- Nadir Shah, 1–2
- Nashashibi, Raghib al-, 127
- Nasir al-Din Shah, 7, 21
- Nâsirî, Kayyum, 36
- Nasiri, Muhammad al-Makki, 132
- Nation arabe, La*, see Arslan, Shakib
- Netherlands: war with Atjeh, 5; and Tokyo congress, 157
- Nuwayhid, ʿAjaj: at Meccan congress (1926), 107, 114–15; and Jerusalem congress, 124
- Orbay, Hüseyin Rauf, 74
- Ottoman caliphate, see Caliphate
- Ottoman Empire: war with Iran, 1–2; absorbs Muslim refugees, 5–6; and pan-Islamic policy, 6–9, 19–24; agitation against, 10–18, 26–35; and Gasprinskii, 38–39, 42–44, 47; and Mehmed Murad, 49–50; Shawish on ways to bolster, 50–53; wages jihad, 55–59; defeat of, 61–62, 67–68; Atatürk and preservation of, 73–79; see also Abdülhamid II; Istanbul; Young Turks
- Palestine, Palestinian Muslims: and Hashimites, 81–82; delegation to urge Meccan congress, 82–83, 124; delegation at Meccan congress (1926), 110; site of Jerusalem congress, 123–41; delegates at European Muslim Congress, 146, 150
- Pan-Islam, see Caliphate; Abdülhamid II; Muslim congress
- Peel, Roland, 164
- Peker, Receb, 145
- Pilgrimage Congress (Mecca, 1924): history, 84–85; text of charter, 181–82
- Poland, 148
- Qanun*, see Malkum Khan
- Qudsi, Muhammad Adib Ramadan al-, 81–82
- Qurashi, Shuʿayb, 109, 121
- Quraysh, see Caliphate
- Quwwatli, Shukri al-, 132
- Radek, Karl, 69–70, 72
- Rampur, Nawab of, 59, 85
- Rankin, Hubert Omar Stewart, 149
- Rashid, ʿAbd al-ʿAzim, 91–93
- Rayhani, Amin al-, 132
- Raziq, ʿAli ʿAbd al-, 89
- Revue de l'islam*, 24–25
- Ribbentrop, Joachim von, 160
- Rida, Muhammad Rashid: 19, reputation as radical, 27; proposes congress in al-Manar (1898), 27–30; and Kawakibi's Umm al-qura, 30–31; attitude toward Gasprinskii, 40–42, 45; opposition to Husayn ibn ʿAli, 81; and Cairo congress, 87–88, 91, 95, 100–1; and Meccan congress (1926), 107, 110–11, 113–15, 117–19; and Jerusalem congress, 124, 128, 137–39; and European Muslim Congress, 142, 144, 146, 148; assessment of role in congresses, 167
- Riza Shah, 92, 137
- Russia, Russian Muslims: reaction to conquests, 2, 5, 8; and congress proposals, 36–39, 48–49; and Ottoman propaganda in First World War, 57; see also Gasprinskii, Ismail; Ibrahim, Abdürreşid; Soviet Union
- Ryan, Andrew, 8
- Sabunji, John Louis, 12, 17, 19, 200n38
- Sadak, Necmeddin, 145
- Saʿid, ʿAbd al-Hamid, 127, 134, 137
- Salim, Mahmud, 143–44
- Şamil, Said, 132
- Şamil uprising, 5, 36

- Sanusi, Ahmad al-, 85
 Sanusiyya, 55–56
 Sarekat Islam, see Tjokroaminoto, Umar Sayyid
 Saudi Arabia, see Ibn Sa‘ud, ‘Abd al-‘Aziz Sayyid, Abu al-Huda al-, 6–8
 Sékaly, Achille, 87, 107
 Seydi Ali Reis, 4
 Shafiq, Ahmad, 121
 Shah, Iqbal ‘Ali: at Meccan congress (1926), 107, 118; proposes congress to British, 121; at European Muslim Congress, 143
Shari‘a, reform of, 16, 28, 33, 38, 48, 50, 51
 Sharif of Mecca, see Caliphate; ‘Ali ibn Husayn
 Sharif, Tawfiq al-, 121
 Shawish, ‘Abd al-‘Aziz: 60; proposes congress and institutions, 50–53, 57, 79; attends Muslim meetings in Berlin and Stockholm, 58; and League of Islamic Revolutionary Societies, 71
 Shaykh al-Ra‘is Qajar, Abu al-Hasan Mirza: pro-Ottoman proclivities of, 22–23; proposal for Sunni-Shi‘i reconciliation, 23–24
 Shi‘is: historical dialogue and rivalry with Sunnis, 1–3; attitude to Ottoman caliphate, 7–8, 48; proposals for assembly to reconcile with Sunnis, 23–24, 102–4; and Cairo congress, 91–93; and Jerusalem congress, 132–33, 220n70; see also Iran; Iraq
 Shir ‘Ali, 8
 Sidqi Pasha, 128
 Society of Unitarians: history, 73–76; text of charter, 178–180
 Soviet Union, Soviet Muslims: initial support for pan-Islam, 69–72; and Cairo congress, 91, 96; delegation at Meccan congress (1926), 110; attacked at Jerusalem congress, 132, 220n62; resettle in Japan, 155–56; see also Russia; Ibrahim, Abdürreşid; Bigi, Musa Carullah
 Spain, 25, 59, 99
 Storrs, Ronald, 62
 Sudan, Sudanese Muslims: as possible caliphate site, 20; and Arabian caliphate, 63–64; and Meccan congress (1926), 110
 Sulh, Riyad al-, 131, 218n10
 Sumatra, see Indonesia
 Sumayt, Ahmad ibn, 7
 Suwaydi, ‘Abdallah ibn Husayn al-, 1–2
 Switzerland: attitude toward European Muslim Congress, 146–47; restricts Arslan’s activity, 152, 158
 Sykes, Mark, 62
 Syria, Syrian Muslims: at Abdülhamid’s court, 7; as possible seat of caliphate, 14, 62; and Gasprinskii initiative, 43; and plans for Pilgrimage Congress, 81; and Cairo congress, 98; and Meccan congress (1926), 110; and Jerusalem congress, 131–32; see also Kawakibi, ‘Abd al-Rahman al-; Rida, Muhammad Rashid; Arslan, Shakib
 Szyrkiewicz, Jakub, 148, 150, 223n31
 Tabataba‘i, Ziya‘ al-Din: and Jerusalem congress, 132, 136–37; role as congress secretary general, 137–41; and European Muslim Congress, 143–44
 Tahir, Muhammad ‘Ali al-, 124, 134
 Talat Paşa, 69–70, 207n7
Tercüman, see Gasprinskii, Ismail
 Teşkilât-ı Mahsusa, 55
 Tha‘alibi, ‘Abd al-‘Aziz al-: and Pilgrimage Congress, 84–85; and Cairo congress, 98, 101; and Jerusalem congress, 132, 137
 Tjokroaminoto, Umar Sayyid: and Cairo congress, 95–96; at Meccan congress (1926), 109–10
 Tokyo, see Japan
 Toynbee, Arnold, 87, 107, 112
 Tripolitania, see Libya
 Tunisia, Tunisian Muslims: flee to Istanbul, 5; visited by ‘Abduh, 27, 201n3; at Pilgrimage Congress, 84–85; and Cairo congress, 98; see also Tha‘alibi, ‘Abd al-‘Aziz al-
 Turkey, Turkish Muslims: relations with Soviet Union, 72; wins admiration of Arabs, 208n7; delegation at Meccan congress (1926), 108, 111, 113, 115, 117; opposes Jerusalem congress, 129–31; wishes to attend European Muslim Congress, 145–46; see also Atatürk; Caliphate; Istanbul; Young Turks
 Tusun, ‘Umar, 89

- ʿUbayd-Allah Sindhi: creates secret Muslim society, 59–60; endorses radical reform, 61
Umm al-qura, see Kawakibi, ʿAbd al-Rahman al-ʿUrfi, Muhammad, 202*n*23
ʿUrwa al-wuthqa, al-, see Afghani, Jamal al-Din al-

 Vambéry, Arminius, 37
 Veccia Vaglieri, Laura, 151–52

 Wahba, Hafiz, 107, 112, 114, 119–21
 Wakil, Mustafa, 160
 Wali, Husayn, 91
 Wauchope, Arthur, 126, 130, 136
 Wingate, Reginald, 63–66
 Woermann, Ernst, 160–61

 Yahya, Imam, 111, 140, 163
 Yasin, Yusuf, 121
 Yemen, Yemeni Muslims: Ottoman apprehension over, 202*n*12; delegation at Meccan congress (1926), 108, 111; accepts Jerusalem congress mediation in war with Saudis, 140
 Young Turks: and Gasprinskii initiative, 43–45; adopt congress idea, 49–50; wartime use of jihad and caliphate, 55–59; activities in exile, 69–72; see also Enver Paşa
 Yugoslavia, see Bosnia
 Yusuf, ʿAli: and Gasprinskii, 40–41; troubles with Ottomans, 43

 Zaghul, Saʿd, 89–90, 211*n*19
 Zahir, Habib ʿAbd al-Rahman al-, 5
 Zanjani, ʿAbd al-Karim, 103–4, 214*n*95, 214*n*104
 Zanzibar, 7
 Zawahiri, Muhammad al-Ahmadi al-: 87, 100, 107; observations as delegate to Meccan congress (1926), 108–12, 116–17; opposes Jerusalem congress, 128
 Zinovyev, Grigori Y., 72
 Zionists, Zionism: and Pilgrimage Congress, 83; oppose Jerusalem congress, 126–27, 134, 136, 221*n*74; attacked in Jerusalem congress, 135; attacked in European Muslim Congress, 150–51; attacked by Husayni in Berlin, 61
 Zohrab, James: and Ottoman caliphate, 13; reports secret conclaves at Mecca, 14–15; influence on Blunt, 15–17, 200*n*18